REPORTS.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Your Board has had before it the paper of the Board of Directors of the Williamston Female College offering that institution to this Conference upon the following conditions:

1st. The entire management of the College to be in the hands of a board of nine directors—five to be chosen by the Conference and four by the stockholders.

2d. The Conference to assume no pecuniary liability and to have no pecuniary control of the property of the college.

3d. The college to furnish the daughters of clerical members of the Conference literary tuition free of charge and all other benefits now furnished by a Conference institution.

We respectfuly recommend that this offer be accepted by this Conference.

D. R. DUNCAN, Chairman.

P. F. Kilgo, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION--NO. 2.

In this day of multiplied institutions of learning with various ideals, the church must enter heartily into this work as a self-defensive measure. That men are to be educated in some sense is evident to all. It is a question of great concern to the church, How shall this be done? If ignorance has its manifold evils, intellectuality has its multiplied perils. The safeguard of the nation is for the church to take hold of this work and give proper ideals. Education deals with material things; the church must teach man to know God. Any system that does not teach that faith in God is the one essential of success is fatally harmful. Men must be taught that greatness and nobility are not found in mere intellectual power, but underneath this must exist a knowledge of and a faith in an eternal being. He who lacks this, be he ever so learned, lacks the spring and principle of his soul. Let our youth be taught that no truth is self-existent, but that it has its origin in God, and let them be taught to see God in truth. To know God is the sum of all knowledge, and any system of education that stops short of this can not be fruitful in Christian character. Here is the church's mission in the work of education.

We have had with us Dr. A. Coke Smith, representing the General Board of Education. We recommend that the new board of education be instructed to inaugurate the movement for collecting our Conference's quota of the Twentieth Century Educational Fund.

We recommend that the second Sunday in March be observed as Educational Day and the collection be applied to the Columbia Female College.

WOFFORD COLLEGE.

The President reports the College in good working condition. The work of the Young Men's Christian Association is most valuable in developing the spiritual life of the students. The number of students is not quite so large as usual. This College appeals to its friends for their most active support.

COLUMBIA FEMALE COLLEGE.

This institution has a good boarding patronage. Satisfactory work is being done. It is necessary that our people be appealed to very earnestly in behalf of this College.

WILLIAMSTON FEMALE COLLEGE.

By the action of this Conference the above College is put under our control. This institution has done a noble work for the cause of female education in our State. We cordially recommend it to our people.

FITTING SCHOOLS.

The Wofford and the Carlisle Fitting Schools, as well as the Cokesbury Conference School, are in fairly good condition. They occupy an important place in our educational system. We recommend that the trustees of the Carlisle Fitting School look into its financial condition and see if a small endowment cannot be raised in the immediate territory of the school. We recommend further that the trustees of this school put the matter of tuition for the children of the preachers of this Conference upon the same basis as that of the Wofford Fitting School.

We nominate the Rev. J. W. Kilgo as Secretary of Education. We ask that $3,000 be raised to help pay the current expenses of Wofford College; that $440 be raised for general education, and that $700 be raised on Paine and Lane Institutes. We nominate the following Boards of Trustees:

Wofford College—Bishop W. W. Duncan, S. A. Weber, W. R. Richardson, E. T. Hodges, W. A. Rogers, R. A. Child, G. W. Gage, C. A. Woods. C. G. Dantzler, G. E. Prince, D. R. Duncan, George Cofield, H. Baer.

Columbia Female College—W. C. Power, C. D. Mann, J. W. Daniel, A. B. Watson, J. A. Clifton, G. H. Waddell, E. O. Watson, J. F. Lyon, R. H. Jennings, Benjamin Greig, L. D. Childs, W. J. Murray, R. O. Purdy.

Cokesbury Conference School—J. C. Chandler, S. D. Vaughan, D. Z. Dantzler, W. H. Hodges, W. W. Williams, W. L. Wait, S. H. Zimmerman, E. C. Connor, W. J. Moore, C. L. Smith, Benjamin Franklin, J. Fuller Lyon, J. G. Jenkins, J. G. Clinkscales.

Williamston Female College—A. J. Cauthen, Jr., P. F. Kilgo, John B. Wilson, J. E. Grier, M. Dargan.

Wofford College Fitting School—Same as Wofford College.

We ask the Bishop to make the following appointments: J. A. Rice, President of Columbia Female College; S. Lander, President of Williamston Female College; G. W. Walker, President of Paine Institute; L. F. Beaty, Assistant Editor of Sunday school literature; Peter Stokes, Rector of Cokesbury Conference School.

REPORT NO. 3.

Whereas, D. R. Duncan has been elected a trustee of Wofford College, and whereas this makes a vacancy in the chairmanship of the new board of education, we respectfully nominate T. C. Duncan for that position.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

It is a fact of history and revelation, that first of all Christ came to His own, and labored for the salvation of His fellow countrymen. He was, in the highest and truest sense, a great domestic Missionary. This department, therefore, of Christian endeavor has the highest precedent. Communities, within our midst, without the Gospel of Christ are not only an incubus on the body politic, but an actual menace to good morals, and religious development. Intensive labors, and financial expenditures to that end, must equip the church for extensive operations in foreign fields. God has not only opened great and effectual doors through which we may have access to the Christian nations; but He, in His providence, is actually bringing many heathen to our doors. No fact is more patent to the thoughtful observer than that the necessity for Domestic missionary operation grows with the increase of our population, and the development of manufacturing enterprises within our State.

The Church needs to be aroused to a more thorough conception of the tremendous work now awaiting her within our Domestic Mission fields. Through this report we desire to call the membership of our Church to a closer study of our needs, and opportunities, in the Mission fields of our Conference. We are gratified to report all of our Missions in a thriving condition. No year of the closing quadrenium has been characterized by greater progress, materially and spiritually, in our several Missions, than the year just closed.

As the Financial and Statistical Reports, as spread upon the pages of our Minutes, show very plainly the development of the several charges receiving Missionary appropriations, we do not deem it necessary to speak in this report of the various Missions seriatim. But we do urge the whole membership of the Church to compare these reports, as they will appear in our Minutes, with the reports of former years, and we feel assured that the fruits of the past year will justify the wisdom of every appropriation.

Respectfully,

J. W. DANIEL,
Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD REPORT.

The interest in Sunday School work is constantly deepening. Better work is being done. More gratifying results are being reached. More and more are consecrated men and women giving time and talent to intelligent teaching of Divine truth in the Sunday School. In this they have been assisted and inspired by the improved and ever-improving exegetical and normal work in our Sunday literature. That teacher must be unresponsive indeed who has not felt its quickening touch.

It is a matter of surprise and regret, however, that our work has not widened more; that the increase of Sunday School scholars, both in the South Carolina Conference and the Church at large, has been so small, and that the proportion of Sunday School scholars and church members remains so nearly the same as it was several decades ago. We need more of aggressive missionary spirit in our Sunday School work. We must press the work among the careless and the neglected. We must magnify Children's Day, and use this means of doing genuine Sunday School missionary work. Considering the great good that your Board has been able to do with the limited means at our command, we cannot but state in sorrow that hardly more than one-fourth of the charges observe the day and send in their contributions. There has been some improvement, however. The number has doubled during the quadrennium, and the amount of money raised has been almost proportionately increased. About 35 per cent. larger number of charges have been assisted, with an outlay in the same ratio. Judging from the statistical reports our money has been well expended in Columbia. We have gladly lent a helping hand in Spartanburg and in opening up the promising Mission work in Greenville and Newberry. The Epworth Orphanage we have esteemed it a privilege to assist, while sparsely settled country places like Salters and Lower Clarendon have been enabled to provide for all who can be reached through the Children's Day fund. Let us not neglect it. This, too, is missionary work.

We offer the following resolutions:

1. That Children's Day be duly observed, and the collections forwarded to the Treasurer of the Sunday School Board.

2. That a forward movement be made to organize schools in places not yet occupied.

3. That we utilize the "Home Department" work of the Sunday School as far as it is possible to do so.

4. That every means be used to improve the personnel of our teachers and the efficiency of their work.

5. That each Sunday School be at once organized into a Sunday School Missionary Society, according to the requirement of our Discipline.

6. That we recommend that the running expenses of our schools be raised in some other way than by class collections, and that these collections be diverted into purely benevolent channels.

7. That once a month, if practicable, or at least once a quarter, a Sunday's collection be appropriated to the Epworth Orphanage.

We close our quadrennium of service with thankful hearts; and praying God's blessing upon the new Board we surrender now our trust.

W. B. DUNCAN,
President, pro. tem.

J. L. STOKES, Secretary.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

Your Committee is glad to report that there has been a decided improvement in the growth of the Epworth League in our State. There has been an increase of about three hundred per cent. in the membership. This fact should be to us a source of great encouragement. Wherever the League has been worked successfully, it has been of great advantage to the Church. The young people have become more consecrated, and under its inspiration the older members have been thrilled with new life. We feel assured that if there were a good active League in each Church, a wonderful advance would be made by our Methodism.

Your Committee fully appreciates the difficulties that have arisen in the path of some of us who have tried to organize Leagues, but we firmly believe that these difficulties can be overcome.

We would suggest to our preachers that they try to organize a League at each Church. In doing this, they will find valuable help in the League Secretaries who have been appointed to give this aid by our State League Conference. In this connection we wish to call the attention of our preachers to the State Conference of Epworth Leagues, which will meet next spring in Camden. Dr. DuBose will be with us, and will give valuable information to all seeking light.

We would also urge our pastors, as far as possible, to put the Epworth Era in the homes of our people. There is no better paper published anywhere for the youths of Methodism than the Era.

We can assure Dr. H. M. DuBose that his visit has been a source of pleasure and profit to this Conference, and we promise him our earnest help in making the League a great success.

J. THOS. PATE,
Chairman.

PETER STOKES, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS AND TRUSTEES OF THE EPWORTH ORPHANAGE.

It is with gratitude and hope we submit this another annual report of the Epworth Orphanage under our care.

During the past year there have been material and permanent improvements in the buildings, furniture, in the farming, and in the printing departments.

The printing, during the latter part of the year, has not been as renumerative as formerly, but pays a profit.

Owing to drought and other causes the farming has not responded to our labor as generously as we had hoped, but pays also.

The School Department has been worked with gratifying success. There are eighty pupils in the school. The instruction is more thorough, and the plan is more satisfactory than ever before. We cannot commend the work of the teachers too highly.

The Industrial Department is giving increasing satisfaction. The children are carefully taught in the various industries, that we are prepared at present to teach, and some of them are attaining quite a proficiency in the several departments.

The Department of Religious Instruction is carried on mainly in the Sunday School, Epworth League, Missionary Society, preaching, daily worship, and private conversation. The work in all these societies is of a high order, and is producing good results.

There are now eighty-five children in the Orphanage. Their health has been good and their moral deportment has been most pleasing.

The work of the Superintendent has been all that could have been required and his administration is approved.

His coadjutors in the work have wrought faithfully and efficiently.

The financial report of the Superintendent and Treasurer shows the following cash received from all sources, $7,450.50; groceries and dry goods, estimated, $1,385.94, making a grand total of $8,836.44. The accounts of the Superintendent and Treasurer have been carefully audited, and found correct.

We find it absolutely necessary to have water works, a kitchen and dining-room, and we appeal to the liberality of the Conference and friends throughout the State.

We respectfully request that the presiding Bishop appoint Rev. G. H. Waddell to the Superintendency of the Epworth Orphanage for the ensuing year.

Respectfully submitted,

A. J. STOKES,
President of the Board.

REPORT OF PUBLISHING COMMITTEE OF SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

The Publishing Committee of the Southern Christian Advocate beg leave to report:

Dr. J. O. Willson has been doing fine work in the editorial chair, and in service rendered in the field. Under his guiding hand the old Southern has been loyal to Methodism, and helpful to all the interests of the Church, and, in a most emphatic sense, is fulfilling the mission of Methodism in "spreading scriptural holiness over these lands."

Dr. S. A. Weber, the assisant editor, has rendered constant and helpful assistance in his "weekly letters," "week's review," and other work on the paper.

The contract with the present publisher, Col. J. A. Hoyt, will close with the present year. He has faithfully discharged his duties as publisher in all particulars, which we are sure is appreciated by every member of this body.

The royalty account has been audited and found to be correct.

In June, of this year, your Committee advertised for bids for publishing the Advocate for the next quadrennium. On the 13th of July the Committee met in Columbia, and, after carefully considering the proposals submitted by seven responsible publishers, the contract was awarded to The State Company, which company will issue the paper from the capital city of the State for four years, beginning January 1, 1899.

Your Committee respectfully call the attention of this Conference to the fact that, under the contract with the publishers, our preachers are pledged to serve as active agents in the circulation of the paper. We also call your attention to the further fact that under this contract, our preachers, as agents, are pledged to make annual settlements in full for all subscriptions charged to them. The publishers are to have their traveling agents to solicit and take cash subscribers, where it will not interfere with the regular agents, allowing the preachers the usual per cent. on such subscriptions; and also to work in whatever way they can for the interests of the paper.

J. S. BEASLEY, Chairman.

H. B. BROWNE, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Thought influences the mind in which it originates. A thought uttered influences those who hear it. But a thought printed influences ages and eternity. More today than ever the printed thought is the wave to supremacy in this world. We are careful as to the moral character of those entertained in our homes. We should be more careful as to the character of the book or periodical admitted there. At no period perhaps in the history of our Church have our people read as they are now reading. The example of pastors and leading laymen can do much to give this tendency a right direction. People will read; let us see that they have good literature. Our Publishing House is ready to furnish any book published in the United States or elsewhere.

In our Conference organ, The Southern Christian Advocate, we have a paper which, in matter and execution, is worthy a place in every home, and we should put it there. We should further use our influence to prevent its being supplanted by papers which in spirit are not friendly to our Church and its ministry.

The Christian Advocate, our connectional organ, holds its place in the front rank of religious journalism. We cannot too highly commend the capability and fidelity of its editors.

In the Methodist Review we have a periodical which commends itself to the most intelligent minds as worthy of a great Church. It is filled with articles which rank with the best literature of the day.

We call especial attention to the Epworth Era. It goes out upon its mission calculated to build up the mental, moral and spiritual life of our young people. We should give it our hearty endorsement.

The Review of Missions is our advocate of the great movement of our Church in heathen lands. It should have the support of our members.

We cannot too highly commend our Sunday School literature, and congratulate our Church upon the splendid work being done in this department of Church enterprise.

Resolved, That we will endeavor to make the closing of this century a time of activity in working for the spread of good books and the circulation of the Southern Christian Advocate, the Christian Advocate, the Review, the Review of Missions, the Epworth Era. and our Sunday School literature.

WILLIAM A. ROGERS, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINUTES.

The Committee on Minutes beg leave to report:

The account of the publishers of the Minutes, Bros. E. O. Watson and S. H. Zimmerman, was submitted to the Committee and found correct. These brethren deserve the sincere thanks of this Conference for their excellent work.

We nominate E. O. Watson and S. H. Zimmerman as editors and publishers of the Minutes of this session of the Conference. We recommend that an assessment of $650 be made for the publication of the Minutes of 1899. We also recommend that the preachers sell the Minutes received at 15 cents per copy, the proceeds to go to the credit of their assessment.

H. B. BROWNE, Chairman.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your Committee begs leave to make the following report

The journals of the ten districts were before the Committee, and after careful examination were found to be accurately kept. They show painstaking on the part of the different secretaries. They are commended for their excellency.

WM. S. MORRISON, Chairman.

A. J. CAUTHEN, Jr., Secretary.

WAY OF FAITH.

Your Committee appointed to consider complaints against The Way of Faith, report:

That after having heard statements from the chairman and other members of the Board of Trustees of said publication, we have prepared a resolution containing suggestions, which the said Trustees assure us they will cheerfully accept and follow. And your Committee respectfully submit the following:

Whereas, The Way of Faith is widely circulated among our people; and whereas, it appears that said paper, as now conducted, is disseminating harmful teaching and injuring the church—

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that the Trustees of said publication should take immediate steps to remove the general and serious damage being done to the Church in its circulation and teaching.

J. E. CARLISLE, for the Committee.

REPORT ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your Committee beg leave to report that they have carefully considered this important question. It is not our purpose to assert the superiority of this question over others which may demand our consideration, but we do assert that apart from the subject of individual salvation through faith in Jesus Christ, there is no subject superior to that of the Christian Sunday for America and for the world. Secretary John Sherman says: "The Sabbath is the foundation of American liberty. The preservation of this nation, or of any nation, is dependent upon the religious observance of the Sabbath, set aside for rest and prayer and for the honoring of the Lord." What are we going to do about this question? That something should be done, all will admit. It will not do to leave the question to do its own fighting. We must earnestly strive to bring our people to a correct view of the situation; to inculcate a righteous principle, and to walk in the way marked out in the Word of God.

We have heard, with pleasure and with profit, Edward Thomson, LL. D., representing the Sunday League of America, and we rejoice that an incorporation has been formed, composed of representative men from various sections and various denominations, for the purpose of preserving as a permanent feature of our civilization the restful, thoughtful, worshipful American Sunday.

We approve of the plan of the Sunday League of America, to visit each State in the Union once in five years, and following its meetings with a circulation of popular literature on Sunday reform. We have examined some of the leaflets recently issued by this corporation, and believe that they will be helpful in moulding a righteous public sentiment upon the matter of Sunday observance. Wherefore, be it—

Resolved, by this Conference, That we endorse the Sunday League of America, and co-operate with the League in its efforts to secure a proper Sabbath observance.

J. A. CLIFTON, President.

G. P. WATSON, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE BIBLE CAUSE.

The Committee on Bible Cause would report to the Conference that we have had before us the Rev. T. H. Law, field agent of the American Bible Society, who has furnished us information concerning the great and important work which he represents. And we offer the following for the adoption of the Conference:

1. The American Bible Society, though not under the control of our Church, is nevertheless its recognized agency for the circulation of the Scriptures in this and heathen lands, and the collection for it every year in every church of every charge is obligatory upon every pastor, both by the law of the Church and the work which the Society is doing for us, and should not be pushed aside by other claims of no greater importance.

2. The Society is dependent upon these contributions of the churches for the maintenance of its fundamental and constantly expanding work. It is not an endowed institution, receiving but a small proportion of its needed resources from legacies left to it, of which it can spend only the income accruing from them. And it is now, by a recent change in its plans, throwing itself more directly and fully than ever upon the churches, whose agency it is, and appealing to them to support it in doing their service in the home and foreign fields.

3. Recent events in the history of our country emphasize the need and value of this society. When hundreds of thousands of our yong men were called into the army of their country, it promptly and generously supplied them with the Scriptures in suitable form for their use. And the countries which, through the results of the late war, have been released from papal oppression and ignorance of the truth, which are now appealing to us to evangelize, must be saved through the dissemination of God's Word, whose entrance giveth light.

Therefore, Resolved, That every pastor of this Conference lay it upon his heart and conscience to present the claims of the cause intelligently and faithfully to his people and endeavor to raise a good collection for it.

R. W. BARBER, Chairman.

CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD.

The Brotherhood met at 4 p. m., Rev. A. J. Cauthen in the chair.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the pastors of our churches be requested to announce from their pulpits the death of each clerical member of our Brotherhood, and to explain the provisions of the Brotherhood to their congregations and solicit members and receive contributions.

W. L. Wait and S. H. Zimmerman gave notice of a proposition to amend Art. VII of the Constitution, to be considered at the next session.

Several new members' names were enrolled, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Rev. J. O. Willson, President; Rev. A. J. Cauthen, Clerical Vice President; Lay Vice Presidents, V. C. Dibble, Henry Strauss, M. P. DeBruhl, J. G. Clinkscales, J. M. Jackson, J. G. McColl, R. H. Jennings, C. M. Hurst and C. B. Sanders; S. Lander, Secretary and Treasurer.

The Brotherhood then adjourned.

S. LANDER, Secretary.

IN MEMORIAM.

MEMOIRS OF PREACHERS WHO DIED IN 1898.

LEWIS A. JOHNSON.

Lewis A. Johnson was born in Edgefield County, S. C., April 7th, 1822, and died at his home in Yorkville February 26th, 1898. He became a member of the South Carolina Conference in 1848. He was ten years on stations, sixteen on circuits, nine on missions, ten a supernumerary and was at the time of his death for the third year in the superannuated relation. He was in many and notable respects quite a remarkable man. He was a thoroughly furnished preacher of the gospel, bringing out of the treasure-house of a deep experience of the things of God—things both new and old. He knew the doctrines of the Bible and Methodism and believed them with all his heart. He was a model pastor and regularly and systematically visited his people, especially in their seasons of sadness and sickness—with a tenderly sympathetic interest. He was a fine specimen of an old-time South Carolina gentleman, readily according considerate attention and courtesy to others, but gently demanding like consideration and respect for himself. He was as brave as a lion, but as kindly and gentle as a nursing mother according as the one or the other side or trait of his character was brought into needed exercise. He was a Southron, to the manner born. He was a colonel in the Confederate army, for the double purpose and duty of a patriotic service of his native Southland and of giving his Christian influence and care to the soldiers in camp and on the field. He was largely instrumental in church building. He was a very Nehemiah in many of the fields in which he labored. It was the pleasure of the writer to live a neighbor to his family for three of the later years of his life. And it is mentioned here to the praise of the glory of divine grace that this holy man of God was most a power at home among men where he was best known. He was a true, pure and good man. Servant of God, well done.

S. A. WEBER.

WILLIAM C. PATTERSON.

In a few days it will be one year since the telegraph wires announced through the S. C. Advocate the death of William C. Patterson at his home near Van Wyck, in Lancaster County, S. C. Born in Lincoln, now Gaston County, in North Carolina, May 15th, 1807, he died December 18th, 1897, full of years and of the honors which come from a thorough Christian consecration and a long, harmless and useful life. He was brought up in the Presbyterian faith and joined that church on a profession of faith early in life. In his young manhood he became a Methodist and soon after entered the ministry of that church. He joined the South Carolina Conference at Charleston in February, 1836. He served on circuits for 18 years, and from 1854 to the time of his death he was a superannuate. This is a short record of an uneventful life, but it is a speaking testimony of the power of Christ to ennoble and beautify and sweeten the life of one who faithfully and persistently for many years trusts in Him and lives to Him. He passed the time of his protracted superannuation in York and Lancaster Counties, in the former of which he married Miss Margaret Chambers in August, 1828. Being industrious and frugal and having inherited a modest estate he so managed as to live comfortably all the long years after his retirement from active work, and to give his children a good education. He was a thorough Methodist in his doctrinal belief and genuinely loved his church even as a loving son loves his lovely mother. He preached out of a full experience of saving grace and with a deeply sympathetic interest in the spiritual welfare of those who heard his message. He lived to pass his 90th birthday, and in the last few years of his life his memory would fail and his mind would wander amid the scenes and circumstances of his early life. In the last conversation the writer had with him, he failed to remember and recognize several names of persons he knew well; but when the name of Jesus was called it seemed to call back his failing powers for a supreme rally as he said: "Oh! yes; I know Him. He is altogether lovely." This good man, in a good old age, has gone home to be forever with the Lord. Brethren, let us, his sons and successors in the gospel, follow him as he followed Christ!

S. A. WEBER.

REV. WILLIAM CARSON.

Rev. William Carson entered on eternal rest at Forreston, S. C., September 8th, 1898. For nearly eighty years he lived among the trials and the responsibilities of time. Each trial he bore like a hero, and no responsibility did he ever shirk.

Faithfulness was one of his marked characteristics. Whatever the duty—whether pleasant or unpleasant—he was true to all its requirements. He was sent "in the order of Divine providence" to what men called "hard circuits" and very "poor missions,"—but without a murmur he gave them his best work.

The people among whom he lab ored felt that he was in touch with the Son of God. His consecrated life was irrefutable proof of the sincerity of his profession. As a preacher he was exceedingly plain and simple. He knew nothing of the higher criticism and never tried to attain to any wonderful heights of oratory—but he knew "in whom he believed," and was never happier than when he was pointing a soul to "the lamb of God which taketh away the sins of the world." In this kind of work he was a success. Scores on the hills of glory revere his name.

The church of his choice he loved. He had studied its doctrines and he knew its policy. Before he would have uttered a word to its detriment or performed a deed that would have shadowed its brightness, he would have gone into a den of lions. He had no patience with men who glory in retailing slanders and misrepresentations of our Zion. To him Methodism was the best exponent of Christianity in existence. His last years were spent in the superannuated relation. In this position he did not become misanthrophic. His spirit that was always sweet became more fragrant as he neared "the most beautiful of lands."

His presence in any company was not only refreshing, but it was an inspiration. No one need ever ask, "did he leave any dying testimony?" There was no necessity for any such shadowy evidence to prove his eternal salvation.

Farewell, plain, simple, earnest, faithful, honest and consecrated William Carson. Your life was a benediction—in its light the weary found rest and the broken-hearted consolation. J. THOS. PATE.

SIMPSON JONES.

Simpson Jones, at the time of his death the oldest member of the South Carolina Conference, was born November 12th, 1812. Was converted and joined the church. Entered the Conference in January, 1838. Served faithfully on circuits and missions for forty-one years. Was supernumerary and superannuate eighteen years, and fell on sleep July 3rd, 1898. He had few educational opportunities in boyhood, but his robust mind more than made up early disadvantages, and the school of the itinerancy completed his self-cultivation until he could and did hold his own with the thoughtful and trained of more favored generations. He married Miss Mary F. Davis, and with her spent long years of happy wedded life. Three daughters sur vived her and are still living.

Brother Jones was emphatically a manly, upright, industrious, sensible, self-reliant, self-respecting man. Strong in body, mind and spirit, he feared nothing but God and had contempt for all that was little and low among men. He had opinions of his own and dared defend them anywhere and with anyone. Of sound business judgment, he could live where many would starve, and he never allowed the canker of debt to bend his spirit or sully his reputation. He preserved not only good report, but forced all to respect him and won fully the hearts of those who knew him best.

As a Christian, his characteristics took the impress of his individuality. Sham and pretense were despised, the genuine and true honored among high or low. His experience was as solid and sound as the granite, and he was ready to own his faith in the face of foes as well as among friends of his Lord. He never wavered or wandered, but steadily walked the narrow way to higher and still higher graces.

He was a clear, strong, preacher. He knew the Bible and the doctrines of Methodism, and he could expound them with power from on high. Multitudes were led to Christ through his ministry. In later and unemployed years, he was constantly laboring in the regions beyond and so planted many a church, which today is strong in numbers and influence. To his last days he still preached with wonderful effect. The writer heard him when he was over 80 years old, deliver several sermons of an hour's length and in all there was clear, strong thought, fine imagination, decided unction. He had not a scrap of paper before him, but he never wandered from the subject nor hesitated a moment. From commencement to climax he moved steadily with increasing impressiveness and without one symptom of weariness to speaker or hearer. It was wonderful.

He was a Methodist of Methodists—of the type of the fathers. Serious in deportment yet cheerful in association, orthodox in opinions, yet keeping step with all true advance, loyal to the core to the church, yet untrammeled and free, true to our Methodist system yet accepting improvement—he was a picture of past generations as he moved in the present. New fads and fancies, as the overwise suppose, did not disturb him; he had seen them tried and found wanting long ago. He held fast the good, and let the other pass.

Men like Brother Jones will not again appear—more's the pity. Not that new men may not be admirable—but the man of the days gone by was so impressive, so attractive. But we cannot keep them. The times change and men change with them. As they pass we may be pardoned a sigh of regret. Farewell, father in our Israel, thy chariot calls thee. We will seek thy falling mantle and will seek to use it worthily.

JNO. O. WILLSON.

J. WALTER DICKSON.

James Walter Dickson, son of B. F. and M. J. Dickson, was born in in Anderson County, S. C., August 19th, 1849, attended the schools near his home, then completed with credit the college course at Wofford College, graduating in June, 1872, joined the church in 1865, was converted in 1866, entered the South Carolina Conference in December, 1872, married Miss Annie M. Schorb, of Yorkville, June 10th, 1875, served a mountain mission, then on circuits, stations and districts, and died in Anderson, S. C., July 14th, 1898, during the fourth year of his service on Columbia District and the twelfth of consecutive appointment to that important post. In every place and station he exhibited distinguished fidelity and ability, and rejoiced over marked and ever-increasing success. Souls were saved, Christians were strengthened, charges were built up in spiritual and material interests, and the church and her Lord were loyally glorified. All the while he commanded the confidence of true men and found his way into the hearts of thousands.

Brother Dickson was a man of choice spirit and of untainted character. In the home, in social and business life, in the church of God—everywhere and always, he was faithful.

He was a Christian of sound experience. He was always ready to give a reason of the hope that was in him. When he knew he was near the dark river, he said, "John O., I want to say to you if the worst comes I have examined the foundation and it is all right." There was a falling tear, a tremor of voice, but the face shone with that love and faith which give victory over death and the voice rang clear and true with the triumphant tone of a conqueror.

He never stinted labor for God; indeed, some believe that his early death was caused by his unceasing and unmeasured toil. He thought for Zion, and for her all the might of hand, head and heart was at command. While friendly to all branches of the church of God, he loved Methodism with a surpassing devotion.

He was a preacher of special gifts and power. The word was in demonstration of the spirit and its thought and illustration were sound, strong, clear, convincing. His preaching moved his hearers—sinners to seek Christ, saints to rejoice in God's goodness. Besides delivering messages of great force, he knew the rest of a preachr's duty; how to pray, how to manage an assembly, how to direct a penitent, how to persuade men, how to encourage and build up the believer. It was his habit to attend to all the duties of a Methodist preacher.

He was unusually endowed for the administration of church affairs. He succeeded where many would have despaired. As a presiding elder he was among the best. Sympathetic and painstaking, his brother preachers were safe in his hands, and charges were sure of proper appointees. The humblest preacher and the smallest charges were cared for by him as faithfully as the most prominent men and places.

But it is useless to multiply words. Walter Dickson was known of all, and today there are none but those ready to speak his praise. Better than all the changing words of men, his ears have heard the welcome of the King: Well done, good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of thy Lord. O, that all of us, when we try the foundation, at last may say, "It is all right."

JOHN O. WILLSON.

THOS. W. MUNNERLYN.

Rev. Thos. W. Munnerlyn was born in Marion County, S. C., in 1833, and died near Smithville, Sumter County, S. C., July 25, 1898. In the home in which he was reared his childhood was matured and developed amid the most helpful religious influences. His father was a most excellent local preacher—a man of sterling integrity and great force or character, and these characteristics were reproduced and illustrated in the life of the subject of this sketch. As he grew up to manhood the home-training he had received led to his conversion and thenceforth his ransomed powers were consecrated to the service of God. Convinced of his call to the ministry, he conferred not with flesh and blood, but sought and obtained license as a local preacher, and soon thereafter was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South—in whose membership he remained until called from labor to reward.

His active itinerant ministry commenced in 1859, and embraced a period of twenty-one years—eighteen on circuits and three on missions. He was married in Clarendon County, S. C., to Miss Ann Elizabeth Weeks in 1861, and found in her a trusted companion and a true help-meet in his high and holy calling. His preaching was clear, strong and methodical. His pulpit discourses were delivered with great earnestness and with an evident desire to magnify his Savior in the edification and salvation of his hearers. He was perfectly frank, fearless and conscientious in the discharge of ministerial duties, yet ever tender and considerate toward the erring and the fallen. He was an humble man; no one ever heard him extol his own virtues or performances. On the contrary he depreciated himself and delighted to give honor to others. None who knew him intimately ever questioned the purity of his motives or the integrity of his purposes. He loved his church, and accepted her doctrines and polity as the truest and best exposition of the Scriptural ideals; nevertheless he fully recognized and richly enjoyed the communion of saints irrespective of denominational limitations. Quick in his impulses, naturally fearless and combative in disposition, and abhoring dissimulation or equivocation, he may sometimes have exhibited undue warmth of spirit and severity of expression, but if convinced thereof he would readily acknowledge and deplore the fault. In his home-life he was thoughtful, kind and considerate—wife and children keenly feel their loss and mourn his departure, though, thank God, they rejoice in the prospect of the eternal reunion in the better land.

During his effective ministry he served several missions to the colored people, and was as willing and happy in ministering to the spiritual needs of the humblest slave as when serving his wealthy and cultured parishioners. Indeed he had a special fondness for that kind of work, and doubtless many a poor slave, freed from the bondage of sin under his ministry, will hail him with joy in the far-off, sunnier clime. He toiled on in his loved employ until increasing infirmities compelled his superannuation. For the last eight years he lived on his farm in the bounds of the Oswego Circuit, preaching as strength and opportunity permitted. His hospitality toward his brethren of the ministry abounded. He delighted in their fellowship, and was never happier than when hearing them preach or entertaining them in his home. To his pastor—however young or inexperienced—he was uniformly kind and respectful. Many a young preacher will cherish grateful recollection of his genial welcome, thoughtful personal service and kindly words of encouragement. The mellowing experiences of his later years were manifest to his friends and cast a radiance over the closing days of his pilgrimage. Farewell, beloved brother. Thy warfare is ended and the victory won. We mourn thy departure, but rejoice in thy triumph.

"Yet again we hope to meet thee
When the day of life is fled;
Then in heaven with joy to greet thee
Where no farewell tear is shed."

THOS. J. CLYDE.

Our Ascended Helpmeets.

LOTTIE LEE NETTLES—BESSIE DAVIS SNYDER.

There are no lives more beautiful in the eyes of men and angels than those of godly women. They shine along the centuries like the planets of the firmament. In the gray dawn of human existence woman exhibited her worthiness to stand in the forefront of the best. As the day star arose its light flashed in her path and irradiated her mind. As the day of the Son of God moves to its zenith the glorious sunburst floods her soul more and more, and so it will to the perfect day.

Such lives are worthy of enduring memorials. Words are not sufficient to render this. Therefore our words of the gentle women who brightened the homes of our brethren, who blessed their lives, aided their labors, and this year went to the upper home may be few.

Mrs. Lottie Lee Nettles, daughter of the late Rev. Samuel B. Jones, D.D., and wife of Rev. S. A. Nettles, was born March 7th, 1865, was converted and joined the church in early life, married April 23rd, 1896, and entered into rest December 12th, 1897. She was the light of the home she dwelt in, the joy of hearts that knew her, the faithful handmaid of the Lord. Her record is on high.

Mrs. Bessie Davis Snyder, daughter of Mr. T. M. Davis, of Clarendon County, S. C., and wife of Rev. W. J. Snyder, was born October 1st, 1878, was early converted and brought into the church, married March 10th, 1897, and passed to her reward July 4th, 1898. She was a benediction where she lived, the delight of friends and neighbors, the devoted servant of Christ. Her memorial is in heaven.

In response to a call of the President, the South Carolina Historical Society held an extra meeting in Dr. Carlisle's recitation room in Wofford College today at 5 p. m., the President, Rev. H. B. Browne, in the chair.

Professor W. S. Morrison served as Secretary.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the Rev. A. J. Stokes.

The President stated that he called this meeting under a provision of the new constitution, for the purpose of hearing an address by Dr. J. H. Carlisle and for the consideration of any matters of interest that might be of profit to the Society.

Dr. Carlisle was then introduced, and made a strong, timely plea for the work committed to us, giving valuable reminiscences of interest and value to all present.

The following presentations were then made:

By Rev. W. A. Rogers.—A walking cane sent by Miss Isabella Martin, procured by Hon. William C. Preston, at Appie Ferra or the Three Taverns, near Rome, Italy, and given by that gentleman to the late Rev. William Martin.

By Rev. S. A. Weber.—Three pamphlets and one bound volume of S. S. Magazine.

TEN GOOD REASONS

FOR PATRONIZING THE

WILLIAMSTON · FEMALE · COLLEGE.

1. It is situated in the quiet village of Williamston, in Piedmont, South Carolina, where clear, cool, sparkling water abounds, and the pure, healthful air has no taint of malaria. The celebrated Williamston Chalybeate Spring is about 200 yards from the College.

2. Its pupils are treated as members of the College family, in sickness and in health. Teachers and pupils all enjoy the same home comforts and fare.

3. The number of boarding pupils is necessarily limited to about fifty. This gives each pupil assurance of that maternal oversight and care which every young lady needs, and which she cannot have in a very large institution, where the individual is unavoidably merged in the mass.

4. It possesses and uses excellent reference and circulating libraries, a well-equipped chemical laboratory, and extensive physical apparatus.

5. It does not burden its pupils with a number of difficult studies at once. In connection with composition, spelling, &c., each pupil has only one principal study at a time. To this she gives almost exclusive attention for five weeks. She then drops it, and takes up another in the same way. This plan tends to prevent the dissipation of thought which always results from undertaking to master several difficult subjects at a time.

6. It does not put its pupils on the College stage on any public occasion. This feature secures an incalculable saving of time, money and modesty, and is especially serviceable to studious pupils, in that it tends to keep away young ladies who think more of display than of the cultivation of their powers.

7. Graduation may occur at any season of the College year, whenever the candidate has finished the required course of study. The loss of a short time, for sickness or other cause, puts off one's graduation only a few weeks, instead of a whole year, as on the annual plan.

8. From the above facts it is manifestly possible to enforce a reasonably high standard of scholarship with less difficulty than in an institution conducted in the usual way. How faithfully this has been done may be judged somewhat from the fact that, during the twenty-seven years of the history of the College, it has turned out only one hundred and five graduates, an average of not quite four a year. All these are what are called full graduates. We have no others.

9. A new pupil entering, or a former pupil returning after a temporary absence, is always furnished with appropriate work at the beginning of any one of the eight sections into which the school year is divided. The whole school is re-classified every section; and a new pupil begins the new section's work as conveniently as if she had come at the opening of the session.

10. It is conducted on Christian principles; and its history has been frequently marked by signal displays of divine power in the conversion of many souls. Several of its pupils are now engaged in foreign missionary labors.
